Terra becomes Eika

Name change of the banking alliance

As first announced 20 December 2012 the Terra banking alliance decided to change the name to Eika effective 21 March 2013.

Eika is Norwegian for Oak Tree, referring to the traditional savings bank logo, and was the original name of the banking alliance pre 2000. With the change in name the alliance is returning back to the roots and focusing on the traditional savings bank role.

As a consequence of the change in name, the ticker codes for instruments listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange have changed from TBK to EIKB. Effective 12 April 2013 the ticker TERBOL in Bloomberg changes to EIKBOL.

The name was updated in the annual update for the European Medium Term Covered Note Programme September 3'rd 2013.

Except for the name change there will be no further legal or organizational changes. The registration ID in the Norwegian business registry remains unchanged.

The Norwegian economy - Solid economic situation

Source: OECD Economic Outlook No. 93 (database), May 2013

- Norway has an extremely strong balance sheet
- Relatively high net central government financial assets (166% of GDP in 2011)
- Significant budget surplus (13.9% of GDP in 2012) and a Government pension fund well in excess of GDP
- Sound growth at an a per annum average of 2.7% for mainland GDP for the last 10 years
- A strong current account surplus averaging around 14% of GDP since 2002

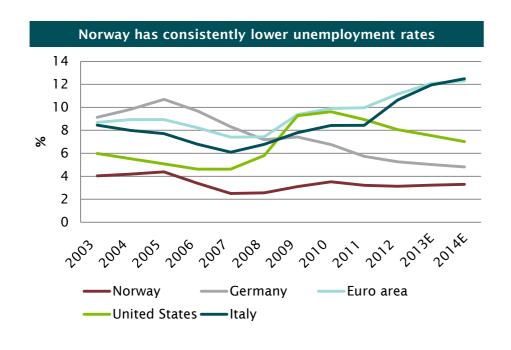

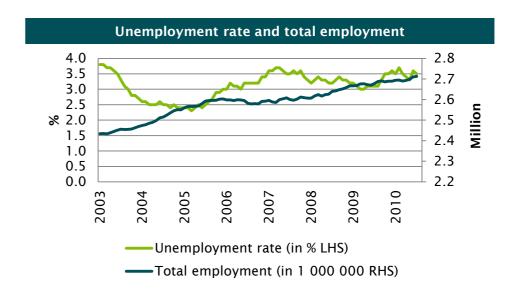

Source: Ministry of Finance, Statistics Norway

The Norwegian economy - Low unemployment

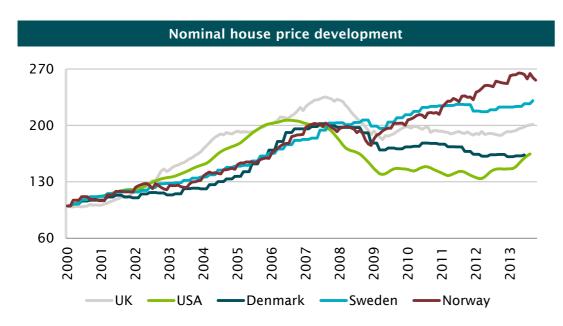

Source: OECD Economic Outlook No. 93 (database), May 2013

Source: Statistics Norway, updated August 2013.

- · A buoyant economy ensures a high rate of employment
- Average unemployment rate of 3.4% in the past 10 years
- A strong welfare system providing significant income protection: average unemployment benefit of 62% of salary for a minimum of 104 weeks

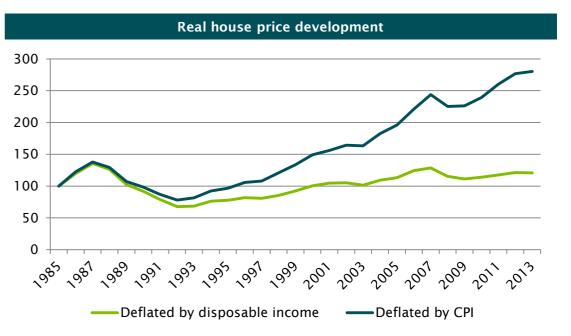

The housing market - Price developement

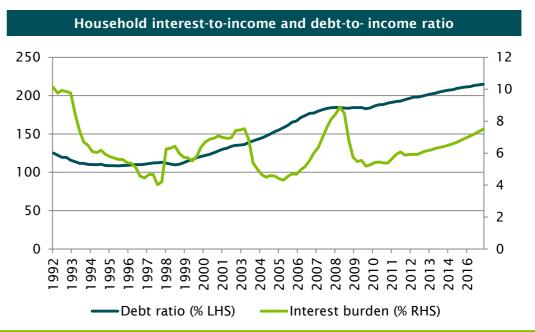

Source: S&P Case-Shiller Home Price Indices Composite 20, Realkreditrådet, Halifax House price Index, Statistics Sweden, Eiendomsverdi, updated June-Ocktober 2013

- House prices have increased by an average of 6,8 % per annum since 1985. House prices have grown by 40 % since end of 2008
- This has been spurred by an environment of low interest rates, high wage growth, population growth and supply constraints
- When deflated by income growth (5,9 % per annum since 1985) the increase in house prices is more moderate
- Household solid income growth and lower interest rates determine the affordability of housing

The housing market - Drivers of the housing market

Source: Statistics Norway, updated September 2013

Source: Statistics Norway, updated Q2 2013. 2013 Estimate is based on annulized half-year figures

- Low housing starts and a strong population growth have been significant drivers of the strong price growth in the Norwegian housing market since 2008
- New home construction is up on the record lows of 2009 and 2010 and they have evolved recently towards the higher end of construction. This should mitigate the momentum on house prices going forward
- The population growth of 0.9% p.a. since 1997 has been driven both by excess of births (40 %) and net immigration (60 %). A growth in net immigration is also noteworthy since the trough of 2009 and is also a strong contributor as migrant population gets settled professionally and culturally

Stock Exchange Notice from EIKBOL

Update on changes to support mechanisms

Terra BoligKreditt AS (hereafter TBK) announced the intention to implement changes to its support structure on 2011-12-15[1], which was further described on 2012-05-04[2], and completed on 2012-05-10[3].

The description state that "Covered bonds issued by TBK are today rated Aa2 by Moody's Investors Service. According to Moody's rating criteria further enhancement of support mechanisms could be supportive to the financial strength of TBK." [2].

Since starting this process, Moody's on 2012-03-09 placed five Norwegian savings banks on review for downgrade [4] and performed a downgrade of the largest Norwegian bank on 2012-05-24[5]. On 2012-10-10 Moody's published the special report "Norwegian banks are sensitive to elevated house prices" [6].

Moody's have reviewed the support agreement. TBK's Covered Bond rating remains Aa2, with the TPI at "High"

Funding strategy and activity

Strong risk management

- Both sides of the balance mostly swapped to 3 month NIBOR
- Minimum Over Collateralization level of 5% (committed in EMTCN Program)
- Redemption within any future 12month rolling period should not exceed 20% of the gross funding at the time of redemption
 - The 20% level is related to the expected maturity on the assets, i.e. 5 years
- Internal target to have liquid assets covering at least 75% of redemptions coming within the next 12 months
- One of the stress tests is the refinancing Indicator I
 - a simulation taking into account, amongst other elements, expected growth and future transactions
 - ensuring availability of funding options within the 20% limit also forwards

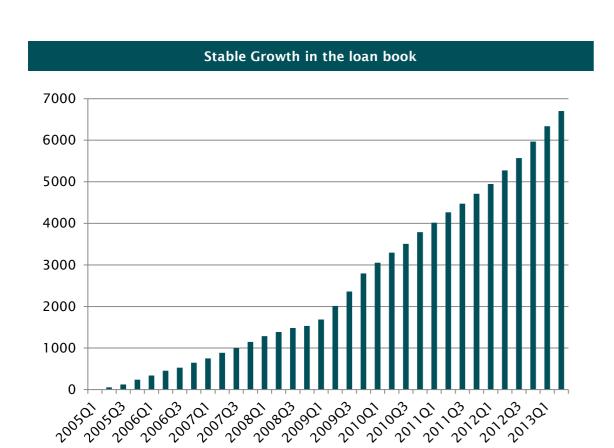

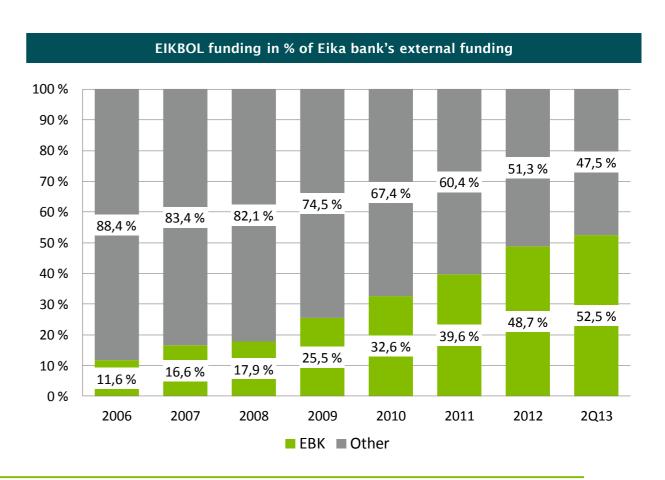

Funding strategy and activity

Funding and strategy

With a stable organic growth, and redemptions starting to materialize in EUR, EIKBOL has evolved from the EUR 500mn no-grow strategy, to an issuer of Jumbo covered bonds with its inaugural EUR 1bn November 2017 transaction launched in late October 2012 followed by the EUR 1bn January 2023 transaction issued in January 2013.

- To reflect this shift EIKBOL has increased the European Medium Term Covered Note Program to a size of EUR 20bn
 - Active in both the NOK and EUR funding market
 - EIKBOL has the objective to be a frequent issuer in the Euro covered bond market, and to have an established, liquid yield curve
